

This is not meant to be an exhaustive list but a guide to the powers and duties of a Parish Council.

Parish councils are corporate bodies that have accumulated powers through legislation since 1894.

Local Councils in England were given a General Power of Competence (GPC) in the Localism Act 2011, Sections 1-8. This means that Councils, once adopting the power, no longer need to ask whether they have a specific power to act. The General Power of Competence Localism Act 2011 S1 (1) gives Local Authorities including local councils "the power to do anything that individuals generally may do as long as they do not break any other laws". It is a power of first resort. This means that when searching for a power to act, the first question to ask is whether you can use the General Power of Competence. To find the answer, you ask whether an individual is normally permitted to act in the same way. A Parish Council must meet the criteria to be eligible for General Power of Competence (GPC). If a Parish Council does not have GPC it only do things allowed in law, see below
